FROM THE CAB - PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS

Our insurance has been solved. Come to the meeting and find out.
Alan Shelley, President

NEEDED: People to sign up for the Buffet Car for our meetings, male or female! There is no one signed up for March. Unless we have two volunteers there will not be any goodies at our meeting.

DON'T FORGET YOUR 1986 DUES ARE NOW PAYABLE

JANUARY WORK PARTY: The following were seen hard at work at the track on Saturday: Earl McKenzie, Dick Quiring, Jim and Scott Durham, Amandus Dreves, Darrel McWhirk (who also brought a wonderful pot of chili and cornbread), Howard Schrader and all four Gramiths. John Bailie has been working at home on the club lawn mower. Chuck Corothers and Eric Quiring have been seen hard at work during the week helping to prepare our property for the boxcars.

DON'T FORGET YOUR DUES

There won't be any red, yellow or green lights this year to tell you if you have paid your dues or not. It's all up to you to remember what your status is. If dues are not paid by the end of March, you will not be receiving an April "Golden Spike Newsletter".
